

Slipping or Tripping in a public place

If you have had a trip or slip anywhere as a result of a defective or dangerous pavement or as a lawful visitor to a hazardous premises, you may be entitled to compensation for the injuries you've suffered.

Local authorities have a duty to take reasonable care to maintain public highways. And occupiers have a duty to ensure that their premises are safe for lawful visitors attending their premises.

If you've had an accident as a result of an occupier or local authority's failure to meet the appropriate standards of care, you may be entitled to compensation.

We can assist in many types of accidents:-

- ⦿ Accidents caused by defective pavements
- ⦿ Accidents caused by potholes
- ⦿ Accidents suffered by local authority tenants due to defective premises
- ⦿ Accidents in public places due to spillages and/or failure to implement appropriate cleaning procedures.

If you have suffered a trip or fall anywhere and think you may be entitled to compensation, please contact us today for a free initial consultation to see how we may be able to help you on 01273 384001. or email enquiries@griffithsmith.co.uk
